Dear Parents/Carers

We are delighted to inform you that we have successfully received re-accreditation of Rights Respecting Silver Award. You can read what the assessor thought of our RRSA work on our website.

On the 20th November 1989 the world made a set of promises for every child on earth. The United Nations Convention on the Rights of the Child is an international statement of all of those promises. UNICEF protects and promotes those rights.

These rights try to make sure that every child is healthy, educated, treated fairly and listened to. They also make sure that all children are protected from violence, abuse and exploitation.

"Rights" are things every child should have or be able to do. All children have the same rights. These rights are listed in the UN Convention on the Rights of the Child.

We are extremely proud to be a Silver Rights Respecting School. A Rights Respecting ethos is at the heart of everything we do at Bidston Avenue helping us to 'be the best we can be'. We now look forward to attempting the next stage of the Rights Respecting Schools Award. It is granted by Unicef UK to schools that have fully embedded children's rights throughout the school in its policies, practice and ethos.

Achieving Silver: Rights Aware means there is evidence that:

- Our school is explicitly embedding the UN Convention on the Rights of the Child in its policy, practice and culture
- We are promoting knowledge and understanding of the Convention throughout your school community
- we are beginning to see the positive impact of these actions on children and young people, staff, and on the school's ethos, practice and environment
- Children and young people are beginning to see themselves as rights respecting global citizens and advocates for fairness and children's rights, both locally and globally.

Yours sincerely

S.G. Brady
